4.1 Description of First Aid Measures:

Eye: If dust particles enter eyes, do not rub eyes. Flush eyes with large quantities of water for several minutes, while holding the eyelids apart. Get medical attention if irritation persists.

Skin: If contact with dust occurs, flush thoroughly with water for several minutes. Get medical attention if irritation occurs. Remove and launder clothing before re-use.

Inhalation: If dust is inhaled, remove victim to fresh air. Get medical attention if you feel unwell.

Ingestion: If small quantities of dust are swallowed, give one glass of water to drink. Do not induce vomiting unless directed to do so by medical personnel. If large amounts of dust are swallowed or discomfort occurs, get medical attention.

4.2 Most Important symptoms and effects, both acute and delayed: Direct contact with dust may cause moderate eye irritation. Direct contact with dust cause slight skin irritation. Inhalation of dust may cause respiratory tract irritation. Prolonged or repeated inhalation of dust may damage the respiratory tract.

4.3 Indication of any immediate medical attention and special treatment needed: Immediate medical attention is not required.

SECTION 5: FIRE-FIGHTING MEASURES

5.1 Extinguishing Media: Use any media that is suitable for the surrounding fire.

5.2 Special Hazards Arising from the Substance or Mixture: This product is not flammable or combustible. Thermal decomposition may release oxides of carbon, nitrogen and sodium.

5.3 Advice for Fire-Fighters: Firefighters should wear positive pressure self-contained breathing apparatus and full protective clothing. Cool fire exposed containers with water spray. Contain water used in fire incidences involving the undiluted product.

SECTION 6: ACCIDENTAL RELEASE MEASURES

6.1 Personal Precautions, Protective Equipment and Emergency Procedures: Isolate the area and remove unprotected people. Wear suitable protective clothing to prevent skin and eye contact. Ventilate the area.

6.2 Environmental Precautions:

Report releases as required by local, state and federal authorities.
