Acute Toxicity Data:

Sodium Fluoride - LD50 (oral rat) 52mg/kg

Sodium Silicate - LD50 (oral rat) 1500mg/kg to 3200 mg/kg

Carcinogenicity: IARC has determined that fluoride is not classifiable as to its carcinogenicity to humans (Group 3). OSHA and NTP do not list sodium fluoride as a carcinogen. OSHA, IARC, and NTP do not list sodium silicate as a carcinogen.

SECTION XII: Ecological Information

Toxicity:

Sodium Silicate – A 96 hour median tolerance for fish (Gambusia affinis) of 2320 ppm; a 96 hour median tolerance for water fleas (Daphnia magna) of 247 ppm; a 96 hour median tolerance for snail eggs (Lymnea) of 632 ppm; and a 96 hour median tolerance for Amphipoda of 160 ppm.

Persistence and Degradability: Not applicable

Bio-accumulative potential:

Sodium Silicate - Sodium silicate does not bioaccumulate except in species that use silica as a structural material such as diatoms and siliceous sponges. Where abnormally low natural silica concentrations exist (less than 0.1 ppm), dissolved silica may be a limiting nutrient for diatoms and a few other aquatic algal species. However, the addition of excess dissolved silica over the limiting concentration will not stimulate the growth of diatom populations; their growth rate is independent of silica concentration once the limiting concentration is exceeded. Neither silica nor sodium will appreciably bioconcentrate up the food chain.

Mobility in Soil: Not applicable

Other Adverse Effects: Not applicable

SECTION XIII: Disposal Considerations

Dispose of in accordance with all Federal, State and Local regulations.

SECTION XIV: Transport Information

Not regulated

SECTION XV: Regulatory Information

Not applicable
